$9 Million Sewer Vote Approved

Supervisors OK Bond Election For Summer

A special "emergency" action Wednesday by the Board of Supervisors gave the go-ahead for a $9 million Central Contra Costa Sanitary District bond election for late this summer.

The supervisors' approval, motivated by the CCCSD request and a certification of need from County Health Officer Henrik L. Blum, will allow the directors to put the mammoth sewer bond election before the voters some time before September 1, when current legislation governing the district on such matters expires.

THE BOARD met last night, as The Sun was going to press, to decide on the exact date of the election, which will probably be in August.

County supervisors acted under the provisions of the state health and safety code in approving of the bond election as requiring only a simple majority of votes for approval, rather than the customary two-thirds majority on bond issue elections.

Also urging support of the bond election, county sanitation consultant William J. O'Connell presented a map showing the service area affected by the bond issue. The money, the CCCSD proponents explained, is needed to finance immediate expansion and repairs.

Approval of the election came after the district directors had requested that improvements specified in the $40,000 Brown and Caldwell engineering report be implemented. If dependent on taxes for the financing, it was pointed out, the district could not build the needed facilities before 1968.

AN OPINION that the CCCSD could finance the bond issue at a combined tax rate less than the 60 cent maximum now charged only for maintenance and operation was filed recently with the directors by Charles P. Burgess of the firm of Kaiser & Company, financial consultants.

Burgess' analysis of the Brown and Caldwell report said a "pay as you go" tax system would be prohibitive and impractical.

Directors had requested that the Brown and Caldwell report recommendations be financed through "Stage three." Suggestions that the sewer bond issue, if passed, will implement, are:

1. That the proposed plan for the collection of sewage be adopted for immediate construction of sewers and pumping stations and for future expansion.

2. That a combined plan for enlargement of primary treatment and oxidation pond facilities to 11 million gallons per day, to serve 183,000 persons, be adopted.

3. INFILTRATION in new sewer construction be controlled by rigidly maintaining requirements for first class materials and workmanship in both sewers and house connections.

4. Permanent metering facilities be installed at suitable points in the collection system.

A prior bond issue, for $4,000,000, narrowly failed in the district election last year. Under the provisions of the state law, if a district has lost such a bond issue, and the money is deemed vital by a four-fifths vote of the district directors, plus the supervisors and the county health officer's approval, a simple majority election may be called.

Library Campaign Begins Tomorrow; 400 Ask Funds

Backed by Orinda civic leaders and organizations, and with $125,000 as a goal, 400 "Library Lassies" will begin a house-to-house solicitation campaign tomorrow to raise funds for the Orinda Library Building Fund.

The campaign will officially get under way at 10 a.m. at the Pine Grove School when a "kick-off" meeting, at which the field workers will get final instructions, will be held. Mrs. Donald Krotz, chairman of the field group, has announced that the ranks of her group are filled and ready to start work.

THE ORINDA LIBRARY Building Fund headquarters stated this week: "We have done our best to properly and effectively inform Orinda residents on this matter. A number of us have worked for many weeks to build a strong foundation upon which to successfully raise the funds with which to build the library.

"For the next several weeks over 400 of us will be working to help create this desirable community asset."

The headquarters statement also related several facts concerning the campaign and the library:

1. The $125,000 to be raised will create a permanent Orinda community asset.

2. Land is furnished, but Orinda has to build and equip the library.

3. The drive is completely separate from yearly charity drives.

4. Contributions are tax deductible.

5. Contributed funds will be audited by C. J. Ross and Edward J. Turk, certified public accountants.

PERC S. BROWN, general chairman of the fund, commented:

"It is important for everyone to know that it is possible to make contribution payments monthly or even quarterly over a maximum period of 36 months.

"Since it will be necessary to average approximately $75 from each contributing family," Brown continued, "we have made the pledge cards as flexible as possible. For example, a contribution of $100 may be paid by paying $25 at the time of subscription and $3 monthly for 25 months.

"Naturally," he added, "as large a down payment as possible is desirable since we want to start building the library as soon as possible."

Brown concluded by reiterating the campaign slogan, "Invest in Orinda."

GROUP CAPTAINS of the field workers are the following Mesdames:

Walter W. Ammon, Don A. Anderson, Chandler Barkelev, Clifford Campbell, Harold E. Cannon, John B. Cartwright, Ernest G. Chilton, Eugene F. Connolly, Ernest Drews, James B. Dupuis, Frank Dutra, W. E. Estabrook, Paul Fanning Jr., Russell Gilwee, John Golden, D. E. Gormley, Howard Gravelle, A. D. Henry, Horton Hill, Roy T. Holm, Albert Johansson, William Kaufman, Ronald Kersh, Robert J. Magill, John J. McCaffery, Angus V. McLeod, William Penn Mott Jr., Harold L. Neeland.

Stanley Nightingale, Oliver P. Pearson, Ralph F. Reid Jr., E. C. Rose, T. D. Sanford, Fredric A. Sawyer, Con Smith, R. A. Soderstrom, Ernest Spiegel, Robert B. Stewart, F. B. Tobias, James H. Van Sicken and William P. Wood.

Invest in Orinda Via Library Drive!

The Orinda Library Fund drive for $125,000, which starts tomorrow in its house-to-house phase, is of direct concern to all residents of Orinda.

A successful drive will mean that a sorely needed new library building will be erected at Irwin Way and Orinda Highway, on Orinda Community Center land.

The community of Orinda must build and equip the library; the county will staff it and furnish the books. The present library quarters, in the Orinda Community Church, have long been inadequate.

This campaign for $125,000 is not for some charity. It is for ourselves — for our community. The sum will be a capital investment for our families and for a permanent community asset.

In that respect, the drive is entirely different from the yearly, recurring fund drives for various causes, worthy though these are.

Furthermore, contributions are tax-deductible. There is no question but that a new library building will have a direct reflection on the value of our community and our property.

The fact that it is possible to make contribution payments monthly or even quarterly over a maximum period of 36 months means that the $125,000 goal — averaging approximately $75 from every contributing family — is definitely realizable.

Of course, as large down payments as possible are desired, because, as General Chairman Perc S. Brown points out, "we want to start building the library as soon as possible."

This is a long-range project, and should be viewed as such. When you are contacted by one of the hundreds of volunteer workers, make your pledge and your down payment as large as possible.

Many times each year Orindans have asked their neighbors for contributions for worthy causes benefiting others and themselves.

Here is our opportunity to do something eminently worth-while for ourselves and our community.

Orinda needs that new library building. Whether Orinda gets it, and how soon, are up to all of us!

'New Schools Needed' Claims Stanford Report

The Stanford Associates, educational consultants assigned by the Orinda School District Board of Trustees to survey prevalent Orinda school problems and suggest possible solutions, have completed their report.

In a 29 page folder entitled "Orinda Plans for Its Future," the consultants discussed school enrollment trends, building facilities and needs, financial implications of improvement, and made suggestions and recommendations for the easing of school difficulties brought about by fast-increasing population.

BEGINNING WITH the revelation that "a rapidly growing area is one that is characterized by high levels of economic prosperity," the report stated that during the last ten years, the enrollment of the Orinda Union School District increased by 55.2 per cent.

The school district now has a total of 63 classrooms in use, with a capacity of 2211 pupils. As there are at present 2198 pupils in the school district, the report stated that 107 classrooms would be needed by 1960 to accommodate the expected 3700 pupils by that year.

Correspondingly, according to the report, it is anticipated that there will be 5000 enrollments by 1965, and 6800 at the point of saturation.

"IT IS RECOMMENDED," stated the report, "that by 1960 the district provide seven additional classrooms at Del Rey, be-

VA Hospital Site Will Be 'Restudied'

"General reconsideration" will be given the entire problem of a site for a new Veterans Administration hospital, Robert Thaman said this week he has been informed by Congressman John Baldwin.

Thaman, acting chairman of the Committee Against the Veterans Administration Hospital in Orinda, said that Baldwin had told him of the scheduled reconsideration in a phone conversation May 31.

The Committee Against the Veterans Administration Hospital in Orinda is the group which, at Baldwin's urging, arranged the huge May 21 protest meeting at Miramonte High School.

THAMAN SAID this week that he had talked with Baldwin by phone May 21, immediately after Baldwin had conferred with top VA officials in Washington, including H. V. Higley, administrator of veterans' affairs, and Colonel R. M. Edgar, assistant administrator of VA construction.

"Baldwin told me that at this conference it had been decided that the whole situation would be restudied and reconsidered," Thaman said.

HOWEVER, Thaman pointed out that the VA has not yet withdrawn the condemnation proceedings it filed recently in U. S. District Court in San Francisco, in a move to obtain the controversial 20-acre site at Moraga Highway and Ivy Drive in southern Orinda, directly across Ivy Drive from Miramonte High School.

It was the announcement that the VA had selected this site that spurred a protest movement culminating in the May 21 meeting, attended by over 800 people and addressed by Colonel Edgar, who flew here from Washington.

THE DAY AFTER that gathering, Baldwin urged the VA to withdraw construction plans for a hospital at Moraga Highway and Ivy Drive, pointing out that a number of other locations had been suggested in Contra Costa and Alameda Counties.

Last week Colonel Edgar said he had not yet completed his report and recommendation to Higley, and that he was awaiting certain maps and other material from the VA office in Oakland.

The disputed 20-acre site at Moraga Highway and Ivy Drive is owned by Utah Construction Company.

Being planned by the VA is an eight-story hospital.

Work Starts on New Water Main

Work began this week on a new 20-inch water transmission main for the Moraga Valley, the East Bay Municipal Utility District announced yesterday.

The two-mile pipeline will be installed on Moraga Highway from Glorietta Boulevard to Ivy Drive. To be constructed of welded steel pipe, cement lined and coated, the main is scheduled for completion late this year by contractors McGuire and Hester.

Approximate cost of the project is estimated at $170,000.

The utility district stated that the new pipeline, which will improve water service into Moraga Valley, was made necessary by the growing water consumption in the Moraga area.

Water for the transmission main will come from the EBMUD Lafayette Filter Plant.

All Races Carry Over Onto November Ballot

Nearly 90,000 voters turned out in Contra Costa County Tuesday for the primary elections, but every major race still faces a "run-off" in the November final balloting.

The race for supervisor in the second district was narrowed to two contestants, Clarence Wallace and Mel Nielsen, but in every other race the ballot will appear the same in the final elections because no candidate in this section of the county was successful in capturing his post in the primary.

State Senator George Miller Jr., who was indicated before the primaries as one of the candidates most likely to take both the republican and democratic tickets, took the democratic ballot unopposed with a complimentary vote of 50,194 — the largest of any candidate.

However, Jack Pedder of Lafayette, filed only on the republican ticket, captured that nomination with a vote of 19,947 to Miller's 16,901, insuring a contest in November.

INCUMBENT ASSEMBLYMAN Donald Doyle, also of Lafayette, captured the republican votes with a margin of 25 to one over demagogue Russel Koch of Pleasant Hill.

The democratic ballot, however, showed 16,389 votes for Koch and 13,654 for Doyle, thus carrying this contest over into the November elections also.

In the Congressional race incumbent John Baldwin captured 34,740 republican votes, while H. R. Quinney, democrat, gathered 1988.

However, this race will also be continued into the November elections because Quinney captured the democratic nomination with 33,537 to Baldwin's 19,865.

AS FAR AS THE preferential primary elections were concerned in Contra Costa County, the area compared favorably with the outlook of the rest of California.

Adlai Stevenson compiled 32,355 votes as compared to Estes Kefauver's 20,064. As reflected in the rest of the state balloting, this insures Stevenson of California's 88 democratic presidential convention votes.

In the race for United States Senator, Thomas Kuchel garnered 33,038 votes on the republican ballot and captured 13,653 democratic votes to put him far out in front.

His nearest contender was Richard Richards who was not cross-filed and received 30,318 democratic ballots in the county to capture the democratic nomination.

OTHER VOTES CAST in the U. S. Senate race were: Tilden Johnson, 1029; R. R. Pritchard, 1075 and Samuel Yorty, 1518, all on the republican ballot.

On the democratic ballot Yorty gathered 9577 votes.

Perhaps the most interesting race for residents of Contra Costa was the contest for supervisor. Top man was Wallace with 3909 votes, followed by Nielsen with 2546. These two will face a run-off in November.

The other supervisorial candidates compiled votes as follows: Edward Larmer, 1926; Eunice Koller, 1821; William Zion, 1796; Harold Mutnick, 1277 and David Comstock, 592.

IN OTHER SUPERVISORIAL races throughout the county, Warren Buchanan, incumbent, retained his post with a vote of 4465 compared to 3582 for Samuel Conti in the Fourth Supervisorial District.

In the Fifth Supervisorial District incumbent Jacob Fredrickson also retained his post with 2964 votes. Joe Silva ran second with 1558 and Richard Cakelbreth gathered 1496 while John Lane took 827.

Girls Improving In Hospitals From Smash-up

Improved conditions of the three Alacanes High School girls involved in the automobile smash-up last week which sent them to hospitals in critical condition were revealed this week by their respective hospitals.

Patricia Hall, 17, driver of the car which overturned in an East Bay Municipal Utility District ditch on May 27 while speeding along St. Mary's Road in Lafayette, was described as "doing very well" by authorities at the Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Oakland, where she is hospitalized.

Patricia, who suffered broken feet, a broken right arm and a lacerated cheekbone, is now "moving a bit," the hospital spokesman stated.

Her companions in the near-tragic accident, Maureen Malvey, 15, and Rosemary Pimental, 18, were also in satisfactory condition.

Rosemary is also "doing fine," according to authorities at the Kaiser Foundation Hospital in Walnut Creek. She had suffered a fractured pelvis, broken femur, misplaced foot bone, and shock.

The report from Jerry Freitas, 18, who had been at the scene of the accident, that he waited 45 minutes for an ambulance after his three companions went for help was answered this week by W. B. Pomeroy, owner of the ambulance service which raced the girls to the Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek.

His Walnut Creek Ambulance Service vehicle was coming from Martinez, stated Pomeroy, when he got the car on the ambulance's two-way radio.

"We got the call in Pacheco," he averred, "and went directly to the accident. We got there about 15 minutes after the call came through."

Stanford Report Reveals School Problem Solutions

"that some relief could be afforded this school by a new building in the Bear Creek area."

Seven additional classrooms are contemplated by September in the Del Rey School, it was revealed. Del Rey is the smallest of the present units, having two kindergartens and eight regular classrooms for a capacity of 374 pupils.

The surveyors believed that the Glorietta School is now an ideal size, with a capacity of 451 pupils. They felt that the building at Del Rey could provide relief for the overcrowded conditions expected within a year, but that no additional construction should be contemplated at the school unless additional land can be acquired.

"Maintaining Orinda at 484 and Glorietta at 451 pupils permanently, keeping Sleepy Hollow at 506 for the time being, and expanding Del Rey to 605 will provide the district with a capacity for grades K-through-6 of 2046 pupils," the report judged.

The report also listed a proposed agenda for additions to existing buildings, which would prepare the district for the expected pupil influx.

1. By September, seven additional classrooms should be ready at Del Rey. This would give the district a capacity of 2046 pupils for the 1956-57 school year.

2. By September, 1957, it may be desirable or necessary to have additional facilities available at Sleepy Hollow. Indications are that two additional classrooms may be sufficient, and the Board should decide whether these will be of permanent or temporary construction.

Out of the several sites recommended by the associates since their survey began, the Inland Valley area and the Bear Creek area were the sites specifically suggested for buildings.

USING PRESENT costs for construction, the report assumed that "the district may have to invest $1.3 million in buildings and sites by 1960, in addition to facilities available in 1956."

"Some question remains," it continued, "as to whether or not the district will have to again enter the state building aid program. It seems reasonable, however, that this will be the case and necessary steps for so doing should be taken at an early date."

At a Monday night meeting, the Board of Trustees had agreed that state aid might be necessary. The report stated that "it is apparent that the capital requirements of the Orinda Union School District will impose heavy financial burdens upon the school district. It is estimated that a classroom for elementary school purposes, including site, construction and equipment costs approximately $25,000 at the present time."

IT WAS CONCLUDED that under the circumstances, it is reasonable to assume that the district should maintain itself in constant readiness to secure additional state aid, "even if on a minimum basis, in order to be able to provide adequate housing needs at any given time."

The educational consultants who compiled the report were Drs. W. R. Odell, Keith Goldhammer, J. D. MacConnell and Raymond C. Schneider.

Introduction to the report stated that "Full cooperation of the Board of Trustees, superintendent and staff prevailed throughout the undertaking of the study."

A Board of Trustees meeting has been scheduled for June 20, at which time Dr. Odell will fully explain the report's principles.

The folder was introduced Monday at a Board meeting.

Chamber Seats Officers; 'Dog' Site Discussed

Discussion on the relocation of the T-Bone hot dog stand was held at the meeting of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce Tuesday at the Willow Inn.

Postmaster Laura Mallory expressed concern over the possibility of the stand moving to a site adjacent to the Orinda Post Office. The prospect of sanitary and odor problems arising from the move was the cause of her objections.

The proposed new site, located at Brookwood Road and Moraga Highway, is currently Rheem property. New chamber president Merle Brown stated that he has information that Rheem is undecided whether or not to rent the property. If the land is rented, he added, satisfactory sanitary and other conditions would be established.

Horace Breed, representative of the Brookwood Improvement Company of Oakland, claimed that the hot dog stand would remain at its present location until building on the new site was begun. He added that although it was premature to say definitely, plans are being made for a large store on the proposed site.

Chamber installation ceremonies at the Tuesday meeting brought a standing ovation to outgoing president Ned DeLaveaga who stepped down from office to join the chamber board of directors.

Installed as new president was Merle Brown, who was seated along with Maynard Beuhler, vice president, and Clarence E. Betz, reelected secretary-treasurer.

Committee chairman named by Brown include Beuhler, membership; Kenneth Courtwright, program; Mrs. Mallory, civic affairs; Breed, parking; Paul Vashell, lighting; John Ogden and R. E. Wadsworth, decorations; Ogden, Al Baer and Ed Amatrone, merchants committee; Mrs. Gladys Schwatka, garden club; DeLaveaga, Diabolo Highway Improvement Federation; Hanson, Betz, incorporation study, and Paul Vashell and Stanley Allen, Christmas tree planting.

After Betz had reviewed the achievements and accomplishments of the past year for the chamber members, DeLaveaga ended his presidential term by paying tribute to the officers and members and thanking them for their help and efforts.

Cited by DeLaveaga for their outstanding work during the year were Betz, Ramsey Underwood, Herman Silverman and Breed.

Incoming president Brown then addressed the gathering and asked for full cooperation during the coming year.

Stanford Report Findings Aired

Dr. Keith Goldhammer's introduction of the Stanford Associates' 29 page report on population trends and school needs in the area highlighted a marathon meeting Monday of the Orinda School Board at the Pine Grove School.

The Stanford report, having been compiled over a nine-month period, has just been released, and board members were familiarized with it in preparation for Stanford Associate head Dr. W. R. Odell's final report on June 20.

The report covers school enrollment statistics, building facilities and requirements, building programs, and recommendations for maintaining adequate schooling while meeting the expected population increases.

Pine Grove School landscaping was another pending topic which came to the fore at Monday's meeting. Landscape architect Theodore Osmundson presented two plans for improvement of school landscaping.

The plans, one of which called for a $42,000 project and the second for $27,000, were rejected in their original form and incorporated into a third plan designed by the board members themselves.

Plan 3 includes some of the first two plans' proposals for grading, paving and culvert construction and is estimated at a cost between $16,000 and $19,000.

The board instructed Osmundson to prepare plans and specifications for the lower-cost project, and expects bids for the work to be opened by mid-summer, according to Joseph L. Sheaff, superintendent of Orinda schools.

Decision on the proposed work on additional classrooms at the Sleepy Hollow School was deferred until the next board meeting. The work, reported Sheaff, might need aid from the State aid program.

Speech consultant Mrs. Georgia Cooper reported on the progress and research made at a special experimental class for children with emotional and physical handicaps since its inception last September.

The class, which included 14 children and was taught by Mrs. Rose Chapin, revealed, according to Mrs. Cooper, that small classes, with between 22 and 28 students, are best, especially for children with emotional problems.

Teachers' roles in handling these children were also discussed, and it was decided that while the teachers have been doing a good job, certain suggestions and recommendations would be made to them.

Other revelations emerging from the experimental project were that the need to recognize a child's problems are absolutely essential, and that parents' co-operation is also vital. The class was strictly voluntary.

Herman Z. Nyland for the past five years a Berkeley teacher, was chosen as a school district principal. He will take the reins at the Del Rey School in the fall. Glen McNicholas, the present Del Rey principal, will head the Pine Grove School in September.

The board also passed a resolution to transfer certain pupils from the Glorietta School to Del Rey School. The students affected are those residing on Orchard Road, Oakwood Road, parts of Owl Hill, Estates Drive, Scenic Court, Scenic Drive, Upper Orchard Road, Glorietta Court, Moraga Highway and vicinity.

Nursery School 'Seniors' Will Get Diplomas

Graduation exercises for 71 Orinda Nursery School "seniors" will be held Wednesday at 9 a.m. on the grounds of the Orinda Community Church.

Besides the formal presentation of diplomas, the morning's activities will include rides on the merry-go-round, taking of a group picture and the most anticipated treat of all — a turn on one of the two riding horses brought especially for the occasion by Lloyd Graham of Piedmont Stables in Redwood Canyon.

The presence of horses at graduation, Nursery School Director Mrs. William Patterson says, is a tradition which dates back to the days when a nursery school grandmother and owner of a riding stable in Orinda, known as Miss Graham's, brought a pony and cart in which each youngster was given a ride.

COMMENCEMENT day festivities will end with the serving of a picnic lunch for mothers and children.

Nursery school undergraduates, the Tuesday-Thursday group, will celebrate the last day of school with merry-go-round riding and a picnic lunch on Tuesday, beginning at 9:30.

In charge of arrangements for Wednesday's event is Mrs. Robert Williams, Assisting her are Mesdames John Miller, James Dupuis, John Rasmussen, Dwight Skaggs and John S. Edwards.

Mrs. Thomas Cullen is in charge of arrangements for the Tuesday-Thursday picnic.

RECENTLY ELECTED officers to guide the school in the coming year are Mesdames Ned de Laveaga, president; Edward Smith, vice-president; Heber Smith, secretary; I. A. Moreskine and C. S. Ford, treasurers; Russell Usinger, purchasing; Thomas Cudden, maintenance; Francis Watson, publicity; Howard Hoyt, Dwight Skaggs and David Brunson, representatives.

Retiring members of the nursery school board comprise Mesdames W. E. Estes, Leonard Roth, D. S. Manuel, Yates Bleuel, Arthur Sassone, Harry E. Larsen, John Healey Jr., Daryl Mitton, Robert Brorsen, L. F. Braumoe, H. L. Neeland, R. D. McBane, W. M. Sawyer, Thomas Silbary, J. F. Gordon and Penn Wilson.

Locals Attend Lion Convention

Orinda Lions Club convention delegates returned recently from the annual four day 4B1 convention at Hobergs resort in Lake County.

President James Hull, delegate Tom Paule and student speaker chairman Kenneth Courtwright were among the 1000 in attendance.

Orinda Bob Rupley was one of eight youths who vied for the position of convention representative in the 4B1 District runoff. Although he was not selected, he received a $25 savings bond as a finalist.

The winner, from Petaluma, will compete tomorrow for a $1500 scholarship in the finals at Fresno.

Orinda String Ensemble Gets New Conductor

Arnold Griller has taken the podium as the new conductor of the Orinda String Ensemble, the young group announced recently.

As members of a group begun just two months ago, by Mrs. Doris Byron of Concord and Mrs. Laurie Rigor of Orinda, the ambitious musicians are undertaking presentations of works by Purcell, Mozart, Frescobaldi and other masters, and are striving toward developing a symphony orchestra for Contra Costa County.

Griller, one of several new members of the group, is the son of Sidney Griller, director of the internationally known Griller Quartette.

He is a graduate of the Manchester School of Music in England, and is continuing his studies at the University of California. He has introduced and conducted some of his own compositions in the Bay area.

The String Ensemble feels that the summer months are excellent times for musicians, both former and prospective, to revive and develop their musical abilities as members of the group.

Rehearsals take place Wednesday nights at 8 p.m. in the Orinda School. All interested parties may attend, or phone Laurie Rigor, CL 4-5753 for further information.

Canyon School To Graduate Two 'Ronnies'

Two boys named Ronnie will make up the entire graduating class when Canyon School graduation exercises are held next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the school.

Ronnie Lee Waldrep and Ronnie C. Scholin are the graduates. Walter Hambleton, their teacher and principal reports the program will include the Flag Salute, songs, class play, prophecy and will.

A graduation talk will be given, after which presentation of class pins and diplomas will be made. The play, "Father of the Year," will include in its cast most of the upper-grade youngsters.

Primary teacher Mrs. Ruby-ruth Beers will be in charge of the music and her "little-room" pupils will present songs as part of the program.

Debate Shifts as Freeway Public Hearing Approaches

Utah Construction Company, through two proposed large subdivisions of which the state-favored route would cut, has expressed preference for the Redwood Canyon route.

Keller has also indicated that Utah would not object to an Indian Valley route, and that the firm would rather have the route looping south of Moraga townsite instead of the state-favored direct route.

Assistant State District Engineer C. F. Greene explained to about 75 people at last Wednesday night's meeting of the Canyon Community Club at Canyon School would be "the most direct, the cheapest and the one which will render the greatest service."

Discussion of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway problem is also scheduled for next Thursday night's meeting of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation board at Chairman Elliot J. Hartman's home in Lafayette.

Services were conducted by Mrs. Betty Gordon, Christian Science reader.

Chapel in the Valley Mortuary of Lafayette was in charge of arrangements.

RAINY WEATHER DANGEROUS

A wet, rainy night is the most dangerous time there is for pedestrians. If you're walking, look out for vehicles and don't assume that the driver can see you. If you're driving, make sure your windshield wipers are working properly and keep a sharp lookout for persons afoot.

After more than three months of preparation, the incorporation study committee's report will be presented to the Orinda Association board at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Orinda School.

Association President Mel Arighi and Committee Chairman Paul Pollaczek urged all interested Orindans to attend the meeting.

Arighi stated that although no decision will be made Monday night, the comprehensive report will be taken under advisement by the board, to be considered along with the report of the community services district committee which was submitted in March.

"Later, the board will decide which course to recommend for Orinda — incorporation as a city, or establishment of a community services district," Arighi said.

Pollaczek said that committee members will be present Monday night.

With Pollaczek on the incorporation study committee are Marion L. Baker, secretary; Joseph Prince, Kirk Miles, Dick Bartle, Clarence E. Betz, Fred Rust, Dr. Leonard Roth and Edgar May.

Proposed Freeway Close to Miramonte Raises Protests

Acalanes High School District Trustees at a special meeting Monday night authorized a letter to highway authorities in Sacramento emphasizing their concern should the new proposed Shepherd Canyon Freeway be close to Miramonte High School, Orinda, and if highway access is to be adjacent to the school campus.

Trustees expressed particular concern over the noise factor and its distracting effect on school activities.

Trustees also considered terms of the contract of the district with Kump and Associates, architects.

In a meeting last week the school board discussed with the school publications with faculty advisors and principals.

BOARD MEMBERS expressed their satisfaction with student publications at Acalanes and Las Lomas High, noting the valued service rendered the student body and the high schools by publications.

Trustees praised the practical experience in business and management afforded students enrolled in publications courses.

Acalanes Principal Stanley Walgren explained a vocational opportunity program jointly conducted by Acalanes High and Springhill Elementary, Lafayette.

Under the program, Acalanes students interested in teaching as a vocation are allowed limited classroom supervision experience at Springhill under the guidance of the Springhill teaching staff. According to Walgren, both teachers and student-teachers approve of the program which will be continued next year.

In keeping with opposition to similar previous proposals, Acalanes trustees authorized a letter to the county planning commission restating their opposition to the zoning of properties across from Acalanes High School to retail business.

Board members approved a four year transportation contract with Moraga elementary after reviewing a successful year of student transport for the Moraga school on a trial basis. The four year contract with Moraga will expire in 1960, in conjunction with the expiration of similar contracts between the high school district and the Lafayette and Orinda elementary districts.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES stated their intention of acquiring a right of way leading from Las Lomas onto East Newell Avenue to afford a secondary approach to the Las Lomas campus from the north.

The Acalanes Board will hear the final report of Stanford Researchers at their meeting next Monday.

The Stanford group has been studying enrollment growth, suitable school site locations, school plant sizes and other district needs. District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons reported on his attendance at a recent Taxpayers' Association meeting to discuss the problem of twelve-month schools. No conclusions were reached, Parsons reported.

Highway Federation Will Discuss Freeway Routing

Routing of the future Shepherd Canyon Freeway will be discussed at the meeting of Diabolo Highway Improvement Federation directors Thursday, 8 p.m. at the home of Chairman Elliot J. Hartman, 18 Hidden Valley Road, Lafayette.

This was announced yesterday by Hartmann, who stated that because of the widespread interest in the subjects for discussion, the meeting will be open to representatives of interested organizations, particularly those in the Orinda area.

Supervisors H. L. Cummings and Ray Taylor will be present to discuss back roads connection and allocation of funds in next year's budget for their construction, Hartman said.

"It is the intention of the federation to urge the supervisors to make provision in the budget for roads such as the connection between Leland Drive and Reitzel Station Road, which are on the federation's priority list," the federation head stated.

"Of special interest to Orinda residents, routing of the Shepherd Canyon Freeway through Moraga will be discussed," Hartman said. "Support of the federation has been asked by several groups in Orinda and Moraga in presenting their arguments for adoption of one of the alternative routes for the freeway, and the purpose of discussion at this meeting is to learn the views of all the organizations in that area and analyze the proposed routes and their effect on the community."

"It is hoped to determine if there is one of the routes which will be acceptable to the whole community."

Hartman added that those desiring to have their groups represented may contact either him or Secretary-Treasurer Dudley W. Thickens, in order that provision may be made for their attendance.

PUC To Hear Commuter Arguments vs. Rate Hike

The Contra Costa Commuters Association case against Pacific Greyhound Lines over rate adjustments for Pleasant Hill commuters will be heard by the Public Utilities Commission June 27, announced President George R. Cummings at the monthly meeting of the Association recently.

Cummings expressed appreciation for the comments and criticism by commuters in response to the recent distribution of the Association Bulletin. "Send in your comments and ideas," said Cummings, "this is your Association and we are here to serve you."

Choral Group Plans Swimming, Dinner

The Diabolo Valley Choral will replace a monthly luncheon and business meeting with a swim party and potluck dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Smith of Lafayette, tomorrow.

The Choral will not rehearse during July and August, will resume weekly practices on September 5, it was announced.

BRIDGE BUSINESS
A grand total of 442,798,265 vehicles had passed over the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge as of March 31, 1956, reports the National Automobile Club.

PROPOSED TUNNEL ROUTE of the Shepherd Canyon freeway is pictured as the controversy over which route the freeway should take rages. The solid line up Park Boulevard leads to western portal of the tunnel. Broken line beyond Oakland Hills shows the Contra Costa extension of the proposed road, passing behind Miramonte High School and crossing Moraga Highway. It would connect with the route at Rheem Boulevard near St. Mary's College. The State Division of Highways is slated to propose this route on June 21. —Oakland Tribune Photo

CONTINUATION OF TUNNEL ROUTE is depicted as the proposed Shepherd Canyon freeway road would wind through Contra Costa County. It follows "saddle" through hills, curves behind Miramonte High School and proposed veterans hospital site, then runs straight to St. Mary's College. Alternate routes have been suggested through either Redwood Canyon or Indian Valley. Routing will be set after hearing. —Oakland Tribune Photo

Tenor Jan Bart Will Sing At Jewish Center Monday

A gala festival of Jewish songs and humor, starring Jan Bart, nationally popular tenor folk-singer, will be presented Monday at 8 p.m., at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, Risa Road and Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

The European-born favorite, who has sung before as many as 122,000 people at Soldier's Field, Chicago, is a product of the "Borscht Belt," the famed summer resort area which has produced such stars as Danny Kaye, Milton Berle and Jackie Gleason.

A former student at the Conservatory of Music, Jan Bart toured 1800 cities with the Major Bowes unit as a young singer, and then joined the Willie and Eugene Howard show to tour Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

Arrangements for the Festival, undertaken by the Contra Costa Jewish Community as part of an intensive national effort to promote State of Israel Bond sales, are in the hands of Fred Katzburg, president.

The State of Israel Bond Issue is the central source of investment capital for Israel's historic program of economic development, Katzburg said.

Funds derived through the sale of Israel Bonds are making possible the growth of industry, the expansion of irrigation and agriculture, the construction of roads, harbors and railways and the building of new homes, he added. The event is open to the public.

Named Agents
Philip J. Grant recently announced he has appointed Cappel, Pera and Reid, Inc., of Orinda as advertising agency for Grant Laboratories of Oakland.

"Cappel, Pera and Reid, Inc., was chosen over the others," stated Grant, "because it is a young, vigorous and aggressive agency with a down-to-earth approach and an apparent thorough understanding of sales and merchandising problems."

Mental Health Group to Hear UC Professor

An annual dinner of the Contra Costa Mental Health Association will be held June 21 at the Monument Hotel in Pleasant Hill. It was announced by Mrs. Fred Hilmer, program chairman.

Spaeker will be Dr. J. Cecil Parker, professor of education at the University of California, Berkeley. Parker is the author of several books among them, "Democratic Growth Processes," and he is co-author of "Citizenship in Our Democracy."

Topic of the evening will be "Leadership and Leadership Training."

New officers and board members will be announced at the dinner meeting according to Walton Kirk, president of the association.

All members of the association were urged to attend this last meeting of this business year. Reservations must be made by calling Mrs. Fred Hilmer at Clif-ford 4-2682 before June 18.

'Thanks, Ike' Drive Now on

"Would you like to say 'Thank You, Mr. President'? A drive is currently under way in Contra Costa County that will make it possible for his supporters in this county to express their gratitude to President Eisenhower for dedicated leadership."

This statement was made yesterday by Mrs. Thomas N. Barrows of Orinda, co-chairman of the Contra Costa "Thank You, Mr. President" Committee. The drive is by women volunteers.

Mrs. Barrows continued: "THIS DRIVE is part of a nationwide finance program to reach those who would like to make a small contribution to the President's campaign. A neighbor-to-neighbor drive is in progress, and each contributor is given a postcard to be mailed to the President himself."

"In return, the contributor will receive by mail an attractive postcard-size picture of President and Mrs. Eisenhower."

Mrs. Barrows and Mrs. Mel Marshall of Pittsburg are co-chairmen for the Contra Costa committee.

THEY HAVE STRESSED that money collected in the drive will go to buy television time for the President, so that he can appear before the American people this election year.

"Every contribution, whatever its size, will help," said Mrs. Barrows.

"We urge women throughout the county to enroll as active members of our 'Thank You, Mr. President' Committee."

Local committee chairmen include Mrs. Bruce Howard and Mrs. Harry Leighton in Orinda, Mrs. Orville Samman of Lafayette and Mrs. Robert H. James of Pleasant Hill.

Local Men Speak At Oil Meeting

Two residents of Walnut Creek and one of Lafayette are among 30 operating managers of the fourth annual San Francisco Bay Area Oil Industry Safety Conference.

The meetings were held Wednesday and Thursday this week at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley. Approximately 450 attended.

James S. Cooper of 240 Douglas Lane in Walnut Creek, marine foreman for Union Oil Company of California at Oleum, discussed barge loading by instrument control and line crew safety.

P. S. Butterfield, 30 Panoramic Way in Walnut Creek, operating assistant for dispatching at the Shell Oil Company refinery in Martinez, described preparations of tanks for cleaning.

H. Roy P. Thompson of 1128 Hidalgo Court in Lafayette, plant superintendent for Shell in Oakland, will moderate a panel on transportation.

Christian Science

The safety and abundance which can be experienced through reliance on God will be a theme developed at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, at 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, and 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda.

Keynoting the Lesson, Sermon entitled, "God the Preserver of Man" is the Golden Text from Psalms 37 (39,40): "The salvation of the righteous is of the Lord: he is their strength in the time of trouble. And the Lord shall help them, and deliver them."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (494:10-11): "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need."

Selections to be read from the King James Version of the Bible will include the following (Psalms 121:8): "The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore."

11 New Taxing Districts Are Born in County

Eleven new special taxing districts in Contra Costa County have been authorized to levy a tax for the first time effective July 1, 1956. No districts have been dissolved during the past year, according to the County Taxpayers' Association.

The new districts which will start collecting taxes in July are Vehicle Parking District No. 1, Orinda; County Service Areas L-4, L-5 and L-6, all for highway lighting; Flood Control Subzones 9A and 8A; Flood Control Zones 9 and 8; Sanitation Districts No. 7A and 7B, Ambrose and West Pittsburg; and the Castle Rock County Water District, Upper Ygnacio Valley.

Unlike the trend towards autonomously controlled districts in the past, most of the new districts are responsible directly to the Board of Supervisors.

Their functions will be administered by regular county departments. This type of administration has been praised by the CCCTA.

Assemblyman S. C. Masterson recently appeared before the West Contra Costa Taxpayers' Committee to explain his bill which would open EBMUD lands in the western county area for recreation purposes.

Masterson stated that many other cities and counties throughout the state and in other states permitted the recreational uses of water district property and reservoirs and that this had allowed the people to use these facilities instead of purchasing and developing other costly sites for park and recreation purposes.

The committee, at its next meeting, will be addressed by John McFarland, general manager of EBMUD.

He will state reasons why his agency does not feel that its properties should be opened for public recreational services.

The discussion of the use of EBMUD lands stems from recent consideration by both the western cities and the county of the acquisition of park sites in this area.

Orinda Girl Honeymoons

When marriage vows were exchanged last Friday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda, Miss Ellen De Anne Johnston of Orinda became the bride of Robert William Fox of Santa Barbara.

At the 10:30 a.m. ceremony, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnston, 16 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda, was given in marriage to the son Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Fox by her father. Rev. Albert Lucas officiated.

The bride, a graduate of the Merritt Hospital School of Nursing, looked every bit the part in her ballerina length white polished cotton gown. The dress was complimented by trimmed lace and was made with fitted bodice and full skirt. A hat of white lace, an illusion veil and a 75 year old hankie of Maltese lace which the bride carried completed the ensemble. Miss Johnston also carried a white prayer book, topped with butterfly orchids and stephanotis.

Her mother wore a sheath gown with matching jacket of French blue imported linen, a white lace hat, white accessories, and white orchids.

Miss Nancie Davenport, who served as bridesmaid, and the maid of honor, Miss Jean Vaseen, were dressed in blue and yellow polished gowns, respectively.

The couple, now honeymooning at Lake Tahoe, will reside in Santa Rosa.

The bridegroom's best man was Bernard C. Stone, while George W. Johnston and Bruce E. Davenport served as ushers.

El Nido restaurant in Lafayette was the setting for the wedding breakfast.

Officers Picked At Miramonte

Miramonte student body officers for 1956-57 have been elected at the Orinda high school.

Chosen were Bill Houston, president; Pan Trafts, vice president; Bonnie Miner, secretary; Randy Young, treasurer; Mary Foster, social secretary; and Marcia MacQuiddy, yell leader.

Youth Concerts Program For Next Season Outlined

Children and adults who attended the first series of the Central Contra Costa County Youth Concerts were told the selections of artists for next year's series.

They were made by the board of directors at a meeting May 21 at the home of Mrs. J. A. Perry in Walnut Creek.

The entire San Francisco Symphony numbering 96 members under the direction of Bernard Murry will again open the series in January.

It will be followed with concerts by the University of California Glee Club and Treble Clef Society, Stan Wilson, rising young Negro folk and ballad singer, and the Berkeley Youth Symphony.

There will be one concert each month, January, through April. The subscription campaign will be held the last week in September and the first week in October. The price will remain $3.50 for the series of four concerts.

It is hoped that attendance will continue to be a family activity, parents attending with their children. Admission is the same for adults and children.

Officers and chairman of the board of directors of the Central Contra Costa County Youth Concerts are as follows:

President Mrs. J. A. Perry, Walnut Creek; Secretary Mrs. Edwin C. Floyd, violin teacher of Lafayette, member of the Music Teachers Association; Treasurer Mario Gano, teacher in the music department of the Walnut Creek elementary schools; Ticket chairman Mrs. C. L. Ofen, Walnut Creek.

Publicity chairman Mrs. D. W. Carlson, Pleasant Hill; Hospitality chairman Mrs. Paul Jacobus, Walnut Creek; Decorations chairman Mrs. Owen L. Williams, Walnut Creek; Volunteer service chairman Mrs. Jack Dana, Walnut Creek; Program Notes and printing, Frederick Freeman, teacher of organ, piano, theory and harmony in Walnut Creek.

Facilities Chairman Gordon Gibson, music teacher, Walnut Creek schools; School representative Mrs. Gordon Gibson, instrumental teacher, Walnut Creek schools.

PUC Defends Jurisdiction Over TV Firm

The Public Utilities Commission recently contended in an official message to the California Supreme Court that the Television Transmission Inc., of Martinez and other like companies are "public utilities within the meaning of the Constitution and the State Public Utilities Code."

This was an answer to a petition filed with the Supreme Court, asking that the PUC earlier ruling against the area company be reversed.

The matter now lies with the state tribunal.

The local company provides coaxial cable antenna service to more than 950 subscribers in Lafayette, Walnut Creek and Martinez.

On a protest received against a raise in rates, the PUC ruled that the company is within its jurisdiction, as a "telephone corporation," and so any raise in rates is subject to PUC inspection.

Foreign Students Give Impressions

Three foreign students attending Acalanes High School as exchange students under the auspices of the American Field Service told their fellow classmates at Acalanes their "candid" impressions of the United States during a student assembly recently.

Guido Grauszi, from Naples, Italy, stated: "The Italian teenagers are not as independent as the American young people. While this American teenage independence tends to create some juvenile delinquency, their independence generally makes the American youth more responsible earlier."

BIBI BORRIE of Stockholm, Sweden, stated that before she arrived in this country, she expected every American woman would be "the typical club woman, while all American men would be interested only in business and Marilyn Monroe."

Bibi explained that her impressions of America were wrong; "remove big buildings and the cars and America could be a twin to Sweden."

David Carter of Manchester, England, observed that England has its own brand of juvenile delinquency known as "Teddy Boys," or gangs that wear clothes which were in vogue 50 years ago. "Since everyone in England can drink alcoholic beverages, the 'Teddy Boys' don't think it any sport to hang around the saloons so they spend their time in milk bars," he said.

ALL THREE FOREIGN students agreed that the people of the United States and their native countries are basically the same and that the differences "where there are differences, require only a little tolerance and understanding."

Acalanes Student Body President Gene Bell joined the foreign trio agreeing that personal contract between nations (such as that undertaken last year, this year and planned for next year at Acalanes) one of the best means of encouraging international understanding.

Two Acalanes students, Smed Ambler and Allen Shapiro, will visit Europe this summer, while three European students will enroll at Acalanes in the fall.

SMOKE IN SAFE PLACES "No Smoking" areas in the home include beds, closets, attics and the work bench when shavings are around or flammable liquids are being used.

Graduation time draws nearer, and for two girls and two boys in our community, it is a very exciting time. Also, for their parents, although June 14 is the date when they will receive diplomas entitling them to attend high school next year, the celebration has already been held.

On the evening of May 31, 1956 four sets of parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barney Glaskey and daughter Karen; Mr. and Mrs. John Sanders and son, Ronnie; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Freitas and daughter Carol; and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Thune and son, Johnny, went dinner-dancing at the Officers' Club, Alameda Naval Base. As the dinner was smorgasbord, the youngsters had a great time choosing what they wanted to eat.

GROWN UP ALREADY?
The two girls, dressed in their semi-formals, looked like dolls while the two boys, in their graduation attire, gave the appearance of being quite grown-up and sure of themselves. Watching them on the dance floor brought tears to several eyes.

Dick Dildine's orchestra played a number of requests for the kids and told about the large graduating class of "Four," which brought applause from the audience.

Mr. Charles E. Toll, eighth grade teacher, and his wife, Dorothy, were scheduled to go with the group as guests of the graduates, but due to fatigue, weren't able to make it. However, their reason was excellent.

On Tuesday, May 29, Mr. and Mrs. Toll were in Tempe, Arizona, so that Mr. Toll could participate in graduation exercises at the Arizona State College, where he received his Masters Degree in Administration. In order to arrive back in time to teach all day Thursday, they drove all night Tuesday and all day Wednesday.

After teaching Thursday, he just wasn't able to make the party, and I can understand why!

Mr. and Mrs. Toll are still in the process of getting settled in their home on Stanley Boulevard, Lafayette. Dorothy, with their two sons, Denny, 13, and David, 11, arrived about two weeks ago, from Coolidge, Arizona, where Dorothy has been teaching primary grades for the past eight years. The two boys are now enrolled in the Stanley Grade school. We wish them success and happiness in their new home and business.

WIND BREAKERS

Memorial Day was a windy one, but evidently the wind wasn't so strong out on the water, for Les and Elinor Wandel and son, Lester, Bill and Edna Lance and son, Chuck, went out on a chartered boat with friends and caught plenty of salmon.

Out of 12 people in the party, Edna Lance caught the largest fish — a 10 pounder, winning the "pot." They were fishing off Mussel Rock, south of Fort Funsten, in case you are interested, and he report is that excitement ran high, while Edna was landing that "big one." Nothing like fresh salmon!

Children receiving their first Holy Communion last Sunday at the Santa Maria Church in Orinda, were Edward J. Bislar, 3rd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bislar, of Larch Road; John and Sandra Sullivan, son and daughter of Mrs. John Sullivan of Camino Pablo, and Theresa Gonzales, grand-daughter of Mrs. Mary Freitas, of Larch Road.

Four to Graduate Thursday From Moraga School

Four students will be graduated from the Moraga Elementary School next Thursday evening at 8 p.m. in graduation exercises in the school auditorium.

"The Challenge of High School Youth" will be the subject of the talk by principal speaker William Ross, dean of boys at Miramonte High School.

Certificate awards will be made by John Sanders, clerk of the board of trustees, and Charles E. Toll, eighth grade teacher at the school.

Class speakers will include Ronnie Sanders, who will give the class welcome; Carol Freitas who will give the invocation and the class goodbye; John Thune with the class history; and Karen Glaskey with the class will and benediction.

Musical events on the program will feature numbers by Mrs. Gurd Oldford's First and Second grade class; Mrs. Alberta Hausken's Third, Fourth and Fifth grade class, and Charles Toll's Sixth, Seventh and Eighth grade class, and a piano solo by Peggy Evans.

The graduating class comprises John Sargeant Thune, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Thune, Camino Pablo; Karen Ann Glaskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Glaskey, 280 Rheem Boulevard; Carol Ann Freitas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Freitas, Larch Avenue, and Ronald John Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sanders of Camino Pablo, all of Moraga.

Thursday's graduation exercises will mark the closing of the school for the summer.

Mickey Wilber, eighth grade student at Pine Grove School, has received special commendation in a national photographic contest conducted jointly by Scholastic Magazines and Ansco Photographic Supply Company.

He was one of three junior high school students in Northern California to have his work entered in the national contest.

Mickey's entry was in the black and white portraits division, and was a study of his three year old brother.

Mickey has been pursuing this hobby for about a year. He has several photographs in the Pine Grove School annual.

Trinket Tea to Aid Blind Camp

The Orinda Branch of Recreation for the Blind held a tea at the home of Mrs. E. J. Higgins recently with an enchanted trinket tree laden with sparkles and glitter as the table centerpiece. Guests rummaged through the tree and purchased the trinkets they desired.

Proceeds of the sale will be used for camperships for children at Enchanted Hills Summer Camp for the Blind at Napa. To date there are 50 applicants for financial aid camperships.

Anyone wishing to help a blind child go to summer camp may contact Recreation for the Blind in San Francisco at 3450 Geary Boulevard.

Women Meet for Camping Session

The Congregational Women of California met at Cazadero Camp for a three-day session of instruction and campcraft recently.

Among the 70 ladies from Northern California were three Orindans representing the Community Church. They were Mrs. E. P. Wayne, vice president; Mrs. W. J. Davison, devotional chairman, and Mrs. L. H. Gulick, secretary.

After participating in the camping, lecturing, swimming and inspirational programs, the group detoured on the return trip to San Francisco for a Chinese dinner.

Dallas Becomes Air Force Officer

Ronald G. Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Dallas, 68 Camino Sobrante, was commissioned as a Lieutenant in the United States Air Force yesterday during ceremonies at the University of California.

Dallas, who will be called to active duty as a pilot on Nov. 23, completed requirements for his commission by receiving his Bachelors degree in business administration and completing the four year program established by the Air Force at U.C.

Prize saved trip to store

EVERYBODY LIKES TO WIN but not all of us are lucky. We've bought hundreds of tickets, signed our name to coupons galore, missed out on $762.00 in a recent crossword puzzle by neglecting to mail in our perfectly correct entry, and have never won so much as a wooden nickel!

But last Monday was our Lucky Day! At last our name was drawn for a door prize. Happily we swung homeward, the little goody tucked under our arm. The kids, knowing our penchant for never winning anything, were as happy with our prize loaf of Langendorf bread as if we'd brought home the "Big Surprise" bacon!

PANTRY PRIZES, including a salad dressing that weight-conscious women can slather on generously, were fun to receive following the "LUNCHEON IS SERVED" installation lunch of the Santa Maria Women's Club last Monday.

Barbara Lincoln, retiring president, presided over luncheon while retiring vice-pres. Kitty Gillivan took over the installing ceremony.

SYMBOLS OF THEIR NEW OFFICES were presented to the following... A pocket coin purse to the new treasurer Janet Golden, a scroll tied w/ribbon to Stella Epperson, corresponding secretary, an old-fashioned quill to recording secretary Margaret Wiegand, a notebook containing by-laws to vice-president De Ette Laher, and the come-to-order gavel to president-elect Peggy O'Brien.

Among the guests applauding the Chopin waltzes played by accomplished pianist Gabrielle Floyd were Stella Boyle seated next to Harriet Thurlow... Barbara Smith in a white picture hat, Tosca Fazio, Frances Baumhoffer, Virginia Block, attractive in a charcoal grey and white middy dress... Patty Stewart, Ruth Dobson, Catharine Irvey, Alta Little, Janet Logan.

Toting home pantry-shelf prizes, contributed by the nat'l organization which serves lunch to promote good products and good nutrition, were Tillie Lucas, Gena Lucas, Bettina Anderson, Jo Horton, Jane Catterton, Florence Mansonen, Elizabeth Gould, Betty Wegner, Margaret Wheeler, to mention a few.

Bananas won't last long here

The grand prize, a tremendous armful of bananas, was presented to Ethel Spittler by the guest speaker Dorothy Durham, who might have wondered about the gleam in Ethel's eyes, or was she aware there's a new little monkey in the Spittler household? And we do mean MONKEY! His name is Mickey, he's more fun than four floorshows. Spike has built him a beautiful cage, and he eats more bananas than all the Spittler family members put together. No wonder Mrs. S. looked pleased!

TRAVEL NEWS... Mrs. George Hickok left last Monday for Portland where she'll visit w/former Orindan Nell Chapple before embarking on a tour of Alaska, sailing mid-month on the St. George from Vancouver... Her itinerary includes Anchorage, Juneau among the Alaskan stops, Victoria, Jasper on the Canadian side of the trip.

The Hugh Riegers of Vallejo Lane are dusting off their lightweight luggage for a June flight across the Pacific for three weeks of vacation fun in the sun and the sands of the Islands. Their children, Shelley and Paul, will accompany them.

Up on Broadview Terrace, Mrs. George Meyer and Mrs. Frank Thomas recently co-hosted a baby shower for Mrs. Robert Farris, but this time the expectant mother was gifted with glamorous accessories for herself: a very NICE idea.

ENGRAVED ANNOUNCEMENT from two men in grey flannel suits, Gerry Pixley and Jimmie Dupuis, who are pleased and proud as new papas over their brand new "baby," American Steel Company, their joint venture just launched last week in Oakland.

A busman's holiday for some

Like to know what some of our teachers do when they empty their desks out for the summer months? Like a paleontologist takes to poking in places, like a pilot takes to a ground cruise of the USA, like a duck takes to water, so our teachers take to teaching.

We cornered some of the faculty while their punch cups were down at the recent traditional TEACHERS' TEA hosted by the Mothers Club Board at Fran Seaman's home.

IT'S A BUSMAN'S holiday for Ted King, Bill Hester, Jack Clark, Richard King, who will man the school playgrounds for the duration of vacation in Orinda.

Bill Jackson, Pine Grove 7th grade instructor, will visit his family in St. Louis and back in Calif., take a new "beachcomber" course at UCLA at Santa Barbara... Mrs. Dorothy Newcome, Orinda 6th grade, will attend Wash. State on a Science conference... Nancy Stickle, 1st Grade Glorietta, is to teach Nature Study at Pine Grove summer school and also on the domestic front to her own two children, Kitren and Holly at their Berkeley home.

Sleepy Hollow Principal Cynthia Knox will teach in the outdoor summer session, as will 5th grade teacher Shirley Lichtenstein, and Edith Andree, Orinda 4th grade. Marjorie Stadt, Orinda 6th grade, will attend summer session at UC, so will Jean Ricker, Del Rey, whose son and dgthtr-in-law will summer in Maine w/grandparents while Mother does her studying.

LOOKING FORWARD TO JUST PLAIN RELAXING, a retreat to the mountains is Muriel Walton, Orinda 3rd grade, while Margaret Kolmar, Glorietta 4th, enjoys those kids so much she'll do baby-sitting in Berkeley. Health Consultant Margot Bengston lists Hawaii on her travel plans as do Ann Garner, Del Rey 4th and Orinda Kndgtin, teacher Georgina Humphreys who will make the Hawaiian cruise together. Miss Humphreys will resume teaching in the Fall at Burbank for 1 yr. TH kids will miss their pretty "green-look witch" comes Halloween, remember?

Rita Schubert, Sleepy Hollow 1st, will sight-see in New York following summer school and Nancy Smith, Orinda 5th grade, has her pick of several good office jobs in the bay area. Pine Grove Librarian Mary Crawford, a Sierra Club fan, plans to climb as high as time and altitude allow. Mary Kimball of 3rd and 4th Glorietta classes, will go to SAC and confesses she'll miss her Orinda Schooldays.

TOMATO PLANTS grow in the darnedest places! Gaston Mariolle is a bit puzzled as he examines the plants which are growing on the Wilkinson Lane side of his Gaston's French Cleaners establishment at Moraga Road and Wilkinson Lane. Said Mariolle, who intends to let the plants remain where they are, "They're much better than the ones I planted in my garden." The question of how the cement dwelling fruit got there is an unsolved mystery. — Sun photo by Mattson

New Schools Envisioned

Acalanes High School Superintendent Neil M. Parsons described the projected growth of the Acalanes District area to Contra Costa Realtors Monday at their weekly breakfast.

Parsons predicted a student enrollment in the high schools of 5200 by 1960, and 7700 by 1965. "A fourth high school in the Tice Valley area and a fifth high school in the Orinda-Moraga-South Lafayette areas should be opened by 1960," Parsons stated.

He reviewed the announced findings of the Stanford research group computing Acalanes District needs and growth, observing that the Stanford report to date indicates there will be seven high schools in the Acalanes District by 1970, with a possible eighth high school in the post 1970's.

With this many in a family, you're apt to find all types of plants — and here you do. Old County Board Of Education Has Final Conference

An "era" ended Tuesday with the last meeting of the century-old, appointive County Board of Education, which will be succeeded on July 1 by the newly elected board.

One member of the present group appointed by the Board of Supervisors will serve on the new board.

George A. Johnson of Crockett, superintendent emeritus of Contra Costa County, was elected to the new board. Of the old board membership he alone is eligible to serve on the new under recent legislation that bars employees of school districts or of the county superintendent.

OTHER MEMBERS of the retiring board, all of them district superintendents, are Henry R. Spies, Antioch-Live Oak Unified District, board president; Dr. Charles E. Haworth, Pittsburg Unified; and Dr. George D. Miner, Richmond City Schools.

County Superintendent B. O. Wilson is ex officio secretary of the old board, as he will be of the new.

Johnson will enter his 40th year as a county board member. Spies was appointed in 1947. Haworth in 1949 and Miner in 1951. Dr. Miner succeeded Walter T. Helms, superintendent emeritus of Richmond schools, who served on the county board for 44 years.

At the turn of the century the famous John Swett served on the Contra Costa County Board of Education. At that time the County Board of Education ruled the "education roost."

IT CONDUCTED five-day examinations for would-be teachers, examined school children of the county on their preparation for promotion and graduation, enforced the attendance of teachers at institute, and served as a virtual court when charges of unprofessional conduct were brought against teachers.

Other powers and duties were the same as today's, such as adoption of a course of study for the county's schools and approval of books for classroom use. The new board will continue with these functions.

Group Formed For Study Of Mentally Ill

Assemblyman Donald Doyle, Chairman of the State Education Committee, today announced the appointment of an Interim Committee on the Severely Mentally Retarded to study the problem of care, education, training and custody of mentally retarded persons in California, to be chaired by Assemblywoman Dorothy Donahoe of Bakersfield. Committee members include Carlos Bee of Hayward, Ernest Geddes of Claremont and Doyle of Lafayette.

"This committee," said Doyle, "will study the problem of the severely mentally retarded and the many bills which have been introduced on the subject, and attempt to come up with recommendations for appropriate legislation to solve some of the problems."

"There have been introduced in many sessions of the Legislature, numerous bills relating to the care, training and custody of the severely mentally retarded, but the people of the State, especially those most concerned with the problem, seldom, if ever, have an opportunity to express themselves regarding the proposed legislation."

"Also, in the past the varied problems related to mental retardation have been viewed on a compartmentalistic basis, that is, the schools have concerned themselves with the educational aspects, the medical people have concerned themselves with the health aspects, and others have taken individualistic stands in this regard," he added.

A Baccalaureate Mass in the College chapel at 8 a.m. will open the day's program. The baccalaureate sermon will be given by Rev. William C. McGuire, assistant pastor at Holy Names parish in San Francisco. Father McGuire was formerly chaplain for the Saint Mary's student body.

Brother W. Thomas, F.S.C., president of the College, will host graduates and their families at breakfast. A final pilgrimage of the campus, with Donald J. Calcaterra of 1789 Country Club, Stockton, will be conducted at 11 a.m.

School Thruout The Year Viewed By Taxpayers

The use of school classrooms during the entire 12 months of the year was discussed by the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association May 24 at the Acalanes High School.

President Bruce Howard said afterwards that, "The association takes the position that this matter possesses the possibilities of bringing about a one-third increase in the use of classrooms."

Present were superintendents and trustees of 34 school districts in the county, members of the new County Board of Education and officials of the County Superintendent of School's office.

It was estimated that there will be a minimum of $176 millions in school building construction in the county in the next decade.

Governor Knight Praises County and Legislator

Contra Costa's rapid growth, and its assemblyman, Donald D. Doyle, were both praised by California Governor Goodwin Knight May 31, in a speech at Martinez Junior High School.

Knight urged Doyle's re-election to the State Assembly for another two years, saying that his experience has and will continue to be important to the county and the state.

HERE ARE PORTIONS of his talk: "Contra Costa County is one of the fastest growing and one of the most progressive sections of California."

"It needs and it deserves the high type of representation that Assemblyman Doyle has been giving this area during his years in the Legislature at Sacramento, and which he will continue to give you when you re-elect him."

"The growing pains that you have been experiencing for so many years, and the problems which you have been required to solve, are not not ended. This area is destined for even greater economic advancement."

"Contra Costa County is rapidly becoming one of the most industrialized areas of the State of California. A large number of new and important plant construction jobs are underway now or are scheduled for the near future."

"THE RATE OF population growth in the county during recent years has been phenomenal. "This county was the fastest growing area in California between 1940 and 1950. Your population soared from 100,000 to 300,000, an increase of 200 per cent — almost four times the average rate for California as a whole. And California was the fastest growing state in the nation during that time."

"Today you have approximately 350,000 people. Your growth has slowed to a rational 15 per cent and your development has become more broad-based with emphasis upon your residential advantages, construction, trade and service activities, as well as manufacturing industries."

"The problems of tremendous growth are too fresh in the minds of the people in Contra Costa County to need reiteration."

"In an effort to help in meeting a part of the financial burden, our State government over the last few years has allocated $21,500,000 for school construction in this county, and $1,500,000 for other public works."

"AS LATE AS 1954, a Legislative Committee found that correcting the deficiencies in State highways, country roads and city streets in this area would require expenditures estimated to cost $145,000,000, of which $88,000,000 would be for State highways. The State is moving rapidly in meeting its share of this burden."

Dental Aides Plan Meeting

The Executive Committee of the Diablo Dental Assistants' Society met May 10 with the By-Laws Committee at a special meeting. The by-laws were revised and accepted by both committees.

The last regular meeting until September will be held Tuesday at Nick's Place, 44 Escobar, in Martinez. Cocktail hour will be between 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 7:30. Special invitations have been extended laboratory and supply men. A colored film entitled "Flying" will be shown.

Tell Supervisors: 'We Need Parks!'

At 3 p.m. next Tuesday a public hearing will be heard before the Board of Supervisors in the Hall of Records Building in Martinez, on the recommendation of the County Park Commission that $150,000 be budgeted by the county for park land acquisition during the 1956-57 fiscal year.

Importance of this hearing is underscored by the report of the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council that of the major counties in California, Contra Costa alone has no county park system.

Possible sites for county parks and recreation areas exist — but they won't exist for long. As the population of the county grows, available park and recreation lands become scarcer — and higher-priced.

The Park Commission — which was appointed by the supervisors in 1954, at suggestion of the Park and Recreation Council — urges that $150,000 be budgeted, because it believes that outdoor recreation areas are an essential part of life today.

Headed by Ralfe Miller of Lafayette, the Park Commission points out that these funds are needed in the budget for early use in acquiring park sites.

To help make the Park Commission request a reality, the Park and Recreation Council asks that all interested citizens write their supervisors and let them know that the $150,000 budget request is a "must."

The Park Commission (like the County Planning Commission) is an official county advisory body. The Park and Recreation Council is a volunteer group of public-spirited citizens. Both units see eye-to-eye on the necessity for early acquisition of county park lands.

The Sun agrees with both groups on the urgency of the problem and on the need for prompt action. We join in the suggestion that you write your supervisor, asking him to vote for the $150,000 budget requested by the Park Commission.

Stressing that "the increase in population in our county has literally overwhelmed the older park and recreation facilities," the Park and Recreation Council pointedly warns:

"It may not be quite so evident — but it is every bit as true — that we have to get the land we want for parks before it's gone for something else."

"Our County Park Commission has laid out a recommended park policy for the near future — the establishment of a number of large reservation-type parks to serve as the basis of a county park system."

"Our County Planning Commission has just completed a preliminary park plan which gives first priority to the acquisition of the Briones area northwest of Walnut Creek, second priority to a large tract near Hercules, and third priority to a 400-to-600-acre area back of the old Cowell cement plant."

"But we have to have money to buy these... If you want to see that $150,000 go into the budget, it would be a good idea to let your supervisor know how you feel."

What They Say...

Nature Calls; Some Answer

Songs have been sung and poems written about the Great Outdoors. There's a certain lure about bees buzzin' and birds hummin' that has drawn people from the comfort and warmth of their homes since time immemorial... most people that is.

There are some of us to whom sleeping on the outside, having an hourly roundup and nose-counting of children, and the thought of an endless parade of eight-legged visitors are insurmountable barriers.

WHEN WE QUERIED the local residents on their sentiments about camping trips, asking whether they preferred long escapades, weekend jaunts, or no camping at all, all sides of the question were presented.

"I don't particularly care for camping," said Mrs. Tony Bariga, 3227 Acalanes Avenue, Lafayette. She went on to explain laconically, "I'm not the outdoor type."

Mrs. A. D. Henry, of 42 Brookside Road, Orinda, agreed that the indoors were more to her liking. Her husband, however, was of a different frame of mind, offering that his preference was short weekend trips.

His only objection was that he "can't go as often as I'd like to." He said that he is tentatively planning an outing this summer.

Another point of view was forwarded by Clarence Palmer, 24 Los Amigos, Orinda, obviously an out-of-doors man with a practical nature.

"IT TAKES so long to get ready for these trips," he answered, "that you might as well stay out there for awhile." Palmer told us that he and his family took a week long trip last summer.

Moderation was the theme of Mrs. Milton G. Clausenius, 3500 Hamlin Road, Lafayette.

She claimed that she liked camping trips "just so they're not too long." Weekend trips seemed to be the answer for her, and she and her family go camping about once a year.

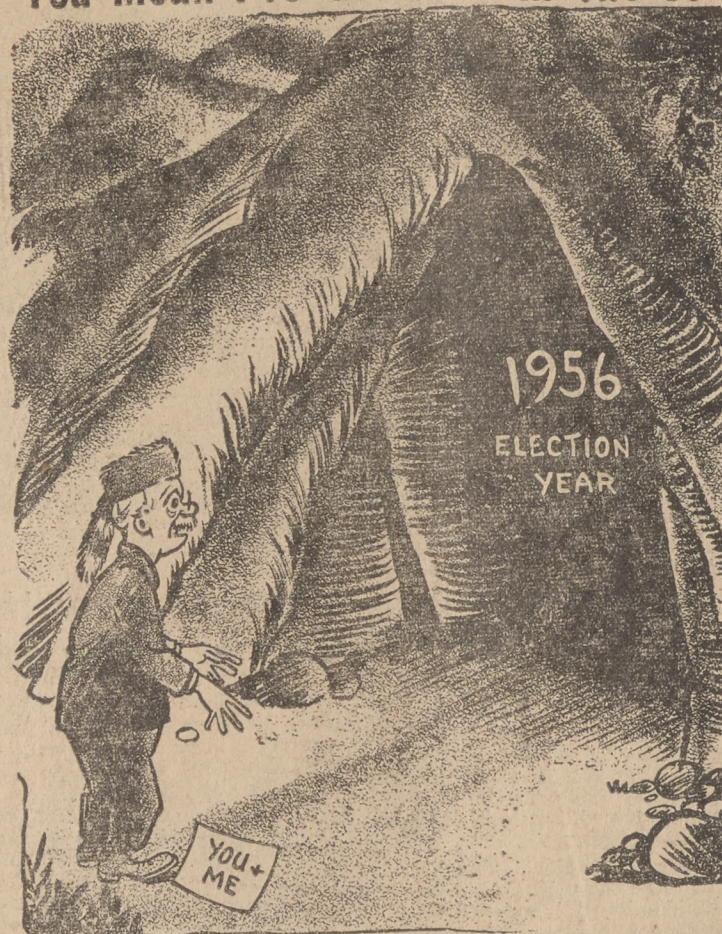

Mrs. Theodore Nelson of 1906 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, likes swimming and other outdoor sports, but "I also like comfort," she remarked.

This rules out camping. The Nelson family, including a 4 and 8 year old, went to the fields and streams last summer, but the laundry, food and other menial tasks proved irksome.

A lot depends on now things work out this summer, said Wayne Johnson of 1942 Ardith Drive, Pleasant Hill, who has three adventurous youngsters, Don, 14, Bob, 13 and Sandy, 12.

Usually they try to reach one or more of the state or national parks in Northern California.

The circumstances are favorable, because he is a teacher of Economic Geography at West Contra Costa College, and the children "love the outdoors."

"We have a division of labor, where I do most of the preparatory parking up, but my husband takes over from there," said Mrs.

Claude A. Cowles of 454 Coleman Avenue, Pleasant Hill.

Mr. Cowles is an assistant clubmaster of Pack 228, and has in his charge on each family expedition, Michael, 11, Pat, 8, and Carol Ann, 5.

"We take weekend trips, but stick to the highways. We like to take it easy coming, going and in between. Besides, gardening is taking a lot of our time these days," admitted Mrs. James Singleton of 181 Alderwood Road, Walnut Creek.

In a couple of weeks, they may motor to Santa Barbara, and see the sights.

Letters to The Editor

A STRONG STAND

Dear Editor:

I wish to congratulate the executive board of the Orinda Mothers' Club for at last taking a strong stand for the good of our children. I refer to the presentation made by President-elect Mrs. Erickson at the protest meeting held at Miramonte High School, regarding the proposed Veterans Hospital. As a former member of that board, I was quite proud.

Mrs. Erickson's points concerning the dangers of young people taking up with strangers so close at hand, and the dangers of congested traffic, were certainly well taken. These are exactly the same points which the Orinda Association has so often brought out concerning the proximity of the proposed PIE installation to the Pine Grove School.

I can see no distinction, whatever, between the two cases, except that the children of the Pine Grove School are younger and even more susceptible to the influence of strangers, and more careless of traffic hazards.

I surely do not wish to seem impertinent in this matter, but I wish I knew why the board can take such definite action on this controversial matter, but could not take such a stand on the PIE question.

I am well aware, of course, that most of the membership, as individuals, supported the association.

MRS. LANCE BARDEN

BOARD FAILURE

Dear Editor:

May a comparatively new resident of Orinda who has fallen in love with its quiet streets, its trees and flowers, and its outlook toward surrounding green hills, say a word about what seems implied in the failure of the County Board of Supervisors to act in accordance with the clearly expressed will of the people of Orinda?

I assume that the board acted legally, though if that be true it is clear that the board's legal powers should be restricted. Surely it should be the right of a community such as Orinda to decide for itself upon how it shall be zoned.

Until such communities are given that right by law it is morally incumbent upon the county board to respect the will of the majority of its people. Unless democracy flourishes at the grass roots of our great country, how can we expect people to take the interest in government upon which democracy depends for its life and growth?

There is an underlying issue here that should not be overlooked. That issue is none other than the reality of the principle upon which America has relied and must continue to rely—the principle of majority rule.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

Who did what to whom?

Here is a sage observation: Well, the primary elections are over, and here are a few impressions:

An upset, which was really not an upset, was the race for state assemblyman. Incumbent Don Doyle, of course, won the GOP nomination. Russell Koch (pronounced Cook) of Pleasant Hill won the Democratic nomination by 2,715 votes.

Some of the dopesters thought Lafayette's Doyle would also win the Democratic ticket. In fact, some were so certain that they are calling Koch's nomination an upset. This is not so because it is very, very difficult for a member of one party to grab both tickets. Doyle, however, almost turned the trick, earning 13,654 Demo votes. Koch, a political unknown, won with 16,369.

A similar "upset" occurred for state senator. The odds were in favor of Incumbent George Miller Jr., Democrat, to win both nominations. He did it four years ago. Jack Pedder, however, won on the GOP ticket by almost 4,000 votes. Lafayette's Pedder ran much stronger than was expected.

Now is the time for all good men

These two races point to a significant fact. The party designation on the ballot, which is new, apparently means something. Perhaps also an element of "party responsibility" entered into the voters' thinking. Whether this is good or bad is not the question. But more Contra Costa voters seemed to vote along party lines in certain races.

Al right, now let me disagree with the above statement by pointing to the Baldwin-Quinney congressional race. And this is a major upset: roughly 9 out of every 20 Democrats in Solano county voted for Incumbent Baldwin, a Republican! Quinney, a Solano resident, was supposed to walk away with almost all that county's Demo votes. In Contra Costa, about 33 Democrats out of 55 voted for Quinney. The total vote on both tickets gives Republicans a basis for optimism — Baldwin, 72,305; Quinney, 48,082.

Baldwin copped 28,809 Democratic votes while Quinney received only 2,902 Republican votes. In this case, the Republicans were holding to party line.

Adlai Stevenson ran much stronger in the county than even his supporters had hoped for. Stevenson won 64 per cent of the state vote and 62 per cent in Contra Costa. County Democrat leaders were also happy over the whipping Richard Richards handed Sam Yorty for the U. S. Senate nomination.

Nuts to Politicus

Although Politicus, our political expert, doesn't usually stick out his neck, he did pick Sam Conti to beat Incumbent Supervisor Bud Buchanan in the Pittsburg area. Politicus was wrong, as Buchanan won by almost a thousand votes.

In Supervisorial District 5 (Antioch-Brentwood), Incumbent Supervisor Jake Frederickson led Judge Joe Silva by 1400 votes, with two others in the race. These two will battle on the November ballot and Frederickson should win easily.

Now let's look at the free-for-all in the race for supervisor in District 2 (Crockett-Orinda-Lafayette-San Ramon Valley). As was expected Clarence Wallace was first in the seven-man race. No. 2 was Mel Nielsen and they will appear on the November ballot.

A confusing race

As early election returns poured into The Sun's office, it was difficult to predict the finish. Then, it became a royal mess when Crockett's votes were received. Eunice Koller amazed everyone by getting 11 out of every 16 votes in Crockett, which is her home town. This shoved Mrs. Koller way ahead of the field but Wallace and Nielsen went over the top as later returns were tallied.

Bill Zion ran a strong third from the report we had at The Sun, but very late returns lifted Ed Larmer into this spot.

Members of the Sun staff enjoyed broadcasting local returns over KECC-Pittsburg.

Our whole-hearted thanks go to the Pleasant Hill and Danville Junior Chambers of Commerce, Walnut Creek and Orinda Young Republicans, Lafayette Democratic Club, Orinda Women's Republican Club and individuals.

These wonderful people spent the evening chasing results from precinct to precinct. We say "Hats off to Them." And ditto to the men and women of our staff who worked very, very hard.

Valley View Hullabaloo

By DOROTHY PATTERSON, AT 4-4195

HEIRS IN THE AIR
To sport enthusiasts the words, "3 Down and 3 To Go" usually are indicative of a football game but in Valley View they indicate something entirely different. Perhaps it just depends on your plane of thinking but in Valley View the words are used entirely with regard to our association's heir plane!

Jack and Marion Maddux now have little John Carter in their household. Besides Marion and Jack to greet wee John, there is also 2 year old Brad who is one of the cutest little finishing nails I've ever wanted to borrow.

Before long, about the only song that will be heard reverberating through this friendly valley is "HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU." We're really going all out, as you can see.

In a way, it all started years ago when a group of ladies formed a Birthday Club. It meets on the birthdays of the membership which consists of: Gloria Church, Georgia Clark, Rosemary Dipop, Harriet Dodge, Vivian Eckles, Betty Enbanks, Thelma Haley, Margaret Johnson, Rose Lechinsky, Maafred Johnson and Mimi (Miriam) Traxler.

They meet in the afternoon, have cake and coffee and who ever's Natal Day it is is nated — (that is the poor man's word for feted and is another one of the seasons for a society columnist!) Even at Christmas-time these girls party and exchange gifts and this has been going on for some 3 or 4 years now, possibly longer.

One might refer to them as the Old Guard if you didn't want to live here any longer — not that they are really old — but it's just that they've been here longer than the rest of us — the cakes probably read "21 plus" — no minutes or new business or anything like that — just fun — and gifts — not really old — and they don't guard anything — just kidding! The only trouble with the trouble with the whole thing being the mess I'm in right now . . . TOOT SWEET?

Speaking of cars — one of the most favorable sights in Valley View is, in my estimation, the sight of Edith and Dave Pugatch (pronounced poo) taking their little turquoise Thunderbird out for a stretch. Thunderbirds are such lovely cars, so fascinating, chic and sleek.

Everything Edith wears looks especially attractive surrounded by that color. Apparently their cares are left behind as they drive off because they certainly do look like they enjoy themselves. Their son Bobby seldom seems to be enjoying himself, though; rumor has it that Thunderbirds seat only two and he sits in the middle. Which spot is not all it's cracked up to be — or is it?

The reason this is such a favorable sight is because their speed always reminds me of those famous words, "Oh to accelerate with alacrity is velocitating" and I

Dance Pupils to Perform

Lila Murphy will present over 150 of her pupils at her tenth annual dance recital at Acalanes High School on Friday evening, June 22.

Dance dramas "The Wizard of Oz" and "Cinderella" will be presented in their entirety in ballet and pantomime. This being the tenth recital, five numbers of previous years will be repeated.

Among these is the amusing "Dan McGrew" and the colorful "Persian Market." An original Holiday Theme will be given by the first and second year children.

Mrs. Murphy has been a teacher of ballet in Orinda for 10 years. Prior to that time in addition to five studios of her own, she staged shows for the West Coast Theaters.

A dancer since childhood, she has studied with Kosloff, Anita Peters, Wright, Belcher and Denishawn. Last summer, in a three-month stay in Europe, she attended the classes of Sadlers-Wells.

While in London she was a guest at a tea given by the Royal Academy of Dance.

In a dance number presented by the advanced class Mrs. Murphy's knowledge of pantomime interpretive dance and ballet will help bring to the audience a few amusing experiences of a teacher on a dance tour.

The recital will be two hours in length.

"It is staged," said Mrs. Murphy, "so that it moves quickly and expertly through the ballets, the tap numbers, and the dance dramas. It is a child's show—danced by children for the delight of other children."

Your Garden Chrysanthemums Give Variety of Sizes, Colors

By THE GARDENER

THERE IS NO LATE summer and fall flower that affords such a wide range of size, color, type, height and blooming period as the chrysanthemum.

And, what is more, few flowers respond to care more than the chrysanthemum.

For these reasons the perennial chrysanthemum is one of the most satisfying garden flowers to cultivate.

AS IF THE aforesaid advantages aren't enough, the chrysanthemum affords another important advantage in favor of its culture: it can be used in a wide variety of plantings throughout the garden, patio and home—in window boxes and pots, garden borders, espaliered in cut flower bouquets.

General culture requirements of the chrysanthemum are not exacting.

Into the planting soil, work manure or peat moss, superphosphate and commercial fertilizer.

PLANT WHERE there's sun two-thirds of the day. (There should be afternoon shade in hot areas.)

Set the plants away from other flowers and shrubs that might compete for soil nutrients. Water thoroughly at regular intervals. Apply fertilizer if the foliage loses its dark green colors, but do not fertilize later than two weeks or so before flowering time, as nitrogen delays flowering and during that period reduces color intensity.

WITH THE PROPER instructions, which your nurseryman can supply, you can grow extra large flowers by pinching, or you can cascade certain types of chrysanthemums and grow them on supports, espaliered against a fence or falling over a wall.

The bloom colors from which you can choose are magnificent: yellows, reds, pinks, lavenders, purples, whites, bronze and several blends of these colors.

Reward yourself with gardening satisfaction by planting some chrysanthemum seedlings now.

Board Postpones Quarry Hearing Until June 19

The County Board of Supervisors' hearing on the Freeway Industrial Properties, Inc.'s application for permission to operate a Redwood Canyon quarry, originally scheduled for last Wednesday, has been postponed until June 19 at 10 a.m., according to H. L. Cummings, chairman of the board.

Cummings revealed May 29 that a letter from County Planning Director Thomas Heaton informed him that the County Planning Commission, which was assigned to make a study of the application, would not have its report ready for last Wednesday's meeting.

Heaton added in his letter that the commission would make a field trip on June 15 to the 300-acre site on the south slope of Redwood Canyon for a first hand view.

News of the permit application brought a stream of protests to the board from residents of Orinda and Moraga, as well as from the Contra Costa Women's Planning Council.

The protests asserted that: 1. The quarry would mar the natural beauty of the canyon, one of the loveliest spots in the county.

2. The area has been proposed as a future park site.

3. The quarry would pose a danger to children walking through the area on their way to and from school.

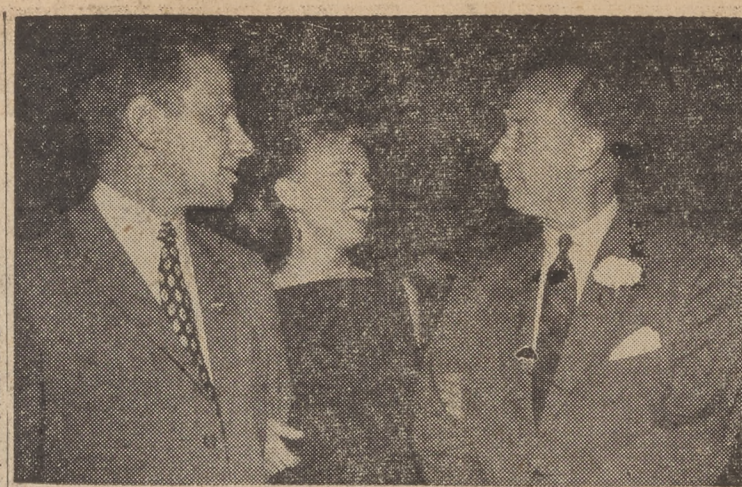

4. The area is already widely used by families throughout the county as a picnic ground.

Past Presidents Speak on Monday

A panel of past presidents of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board will convene next Monday morning at a general meeting in the El Nido. Time is 7:30.

Neil Parsons, superintendent of Acalanes High School District, was to speak at the meeting last Monday, on high school expansion and realignment of boundaries.

It was announced that one more meeting of the class in "Esrow Practice and Procedure" will be held at the North American Title Company office in Pleasant Hill Wednesday. Topic will be "Subdivisions and Descriptions."

ADLAI STEVENSON, who won the Democratic presidential primary election in California Tuesday, is shown with Mr. and Mrs. William McKee of Lafayette at a Richmond gathering recently.

Newton Hildebrand, Jim McNamara, Larry Stanley, John Buchter, Eric Fink, Steve Williams, David Deuben, Harold Libbey Jr., Dale Fraakes and Perry "Chip" Smith.

The Merit Badge for Music was received by Gary Staff. One year service stars were received by: Steve Williams, Dale Fraakes, Gary Staff, Douglas Silva, Perry Popovich, Bruce Nicolai, Marty Mieger, Robert McLeod, Clyde MacDonald, Tom Gaffney, Marson Fries, Mike Eaton and Mario Albo.

The awards were presented by Scoutmaster William M. Ellgas and Assistant Scoutmaster Rockwell Smith, both of Orinda.

After awards were received the scoutmaster and the members of the troop committee were presented the charter for Troop 244 by District Commissioner Edward Hicks and Neighborhood Commissioner Will Haelele.

Refreshments were served by the troop at the conclusion of the ceremonies.

Troop 12

Members of Girl Scout Troop 12 and their leaders, Mrs. Wenele E. Smith and Mrs. Herbert Nilmeier, held a backyard camp-out on May 29 at the home of Mrs. Warren Herlihy, 166 Overhill Road.

The overnight campout climaxed several weeks of preparation by the girls. They had learned to build a fire and construct an adequate fireplace where they prepared their evening meal.

They had made tin can stoves on which they cooked their breakfast. They planned the meals and did the shopping for the food, fixed their own bed rolls and packed their own knapsacks.

In the evening around the campfire the girls sang songs, played games and put on skits.

Completion of this overnight entitles the girls to the backyard Camper proficiency badge.

The members of the troop are Pamela Bergeron, Susanne Harter, Pamela Herlihy, Becky Horne, Susan Jacobs, Suzanne Mann, Cheryl Messersmith, Sandra Mittell, Laura Nilmeier, Frann Pettler and Gladys Smith.

Legion Ball Will Start 2nd Round

Legion Junior Baseball finished the first round of play last Sunday and starts the second round of play tomorrow.

Final games will be played on June 23, with the winner of the Contra Costa six-team league playing the winners of the Bay Area in a best 2 out of 3 series, to decide who goes on in state play.

Games on tap tomorrow find Walnut Creek hosting Concord, while Martinez comes to Lafayette, and Port Chicago shows at Pittsburg.

On Sunday it's Walnut Creek at Martinez, Port Chicago at Lafayette, and Pittsburg at Concord.

All games are scheduled for 2 p.m. except the Port Chicago-Lafayette tilt, which has been moved to 4:30 p.m. in order to give the Junior League full attention for its games, which will mark the season's official opening.

Ceremonies will get under way at 1 p.m., with a double header to follow.

Midget Drivers Primed for Race Tomorrow Night

Midget drivers will make their seasonal debut in a program of eight events tomorrow night at Contra Costa Speedway near Walnut Creek.

There will be no restrictions on the number of Offenhauser entries, announced Promoter Gene Marsh and Jack London, business manager of the Bay Cities Racing Association. This marks the first time that Offies will compete at the Contra Costa track on an unrestricted basis.

More than 40 entries are expected to battle for places in the a 25-lap main event. Other events include a trophy dash, four heat races, a 10-lap final heat, and a 15-lap semi-main event.

As in the case of the hardtops last week, Marsh expects the midget pilots to establish new Contra Costa speed records. The clay-surfaced track is now banked at eight degrees, where in past years it was a flat dirt track.

Early indications are that at least four Offenhausers from this area will perform. At the wheels of the high-powered Offies are slated to be Mike McGreevy, Oakland; Ed Normi, Petaluma; Bob Machen, Alameda, and Tony Bullis, Grants Pass, Oregon.

Included among the entries is Tommy Morrow, winner of the 500-lap "Little Indianapolis" race at San Jose last Tuesday night.

250 Lads Will Launch New Ball League

Program Set for Sunday

Color, ceremony and impressive marching will herald the start of the season for the new Lafayette Junior Baseball League at 12:30 Sunday at the newly built "junior-model" diamond at Acalanes High School.

Gordon McNulty, president of the Lafayette Youth Association, said yesterday he expects upward of 500 persons to be present at the opening ceremonies and exhibition games.

"Between 250 and 270 boys—members of all the teams in the league—will participate in the program, and their parents are invited," he said.

FOLLOWING PRESENTATION of the colors by Cub Scouts, the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and a ball-throwing ceremony, drawings will be held to determine which teams will play that afternoon.

McNulty will officiate at the ceremonies.

Promptly at 1 p.m. the "minors" will put on an exhibition game, which will last for six innings if they are completed within an hour and a half. The Youth Baseball League's "minor" loop consists of 9 and 10-year-old boys.

After the "minor" game, there will be an exhibition competition by "majors"—boys 11, 12 and 13 years old.

Season tickets will be available for donations of 50 cents each.

ACTUAL LEAGUE competition will get under way at 6:30 p.m. Monday, and will continue for at least nine weeks, Mondays through Fridays.

Starting time for each weekday league contest is 6:30 p.m. The "majors" will play at Acalanes, while the "minors" will hold forth at the Lafayette School grounds.

Each of 10 firms sponsors a "major" team and a "minor" team.

TWO ADDITIONAL sponsors were announced this week by McNulty. They are Jacuzzi Hydro-Massage and Lincoln Development Company.

Previously announced sponsors are Lafayette Pharmacy, Lafayette Furniture, Reti-White Motors, Lafayette Rental and Hardware, Gaston's Cleaners, Sun Valley Lumber, Kings Food Center and Sports and Games, Inc.

The sponsors supply the teams with uniforms and equipment.

Kelly's Topples PH Redbirds in 6-4 Ball Game

The Kelly's Contra Costa Baseball Team defeated the Pleasant Hill Redbirds 6-4 at Las Lomas High School Saturday.

Kelly's took the lead in the third inning when Eric Nankivell hit a double. Bob Gomez then walked to load the bases.

Bob Staley later hit a single scoring Nankivell and Drummond. Terry Sieberlich hit a single to score Gomez, and Marty Dahl hit a double, scoring Staley and Sieberlich.

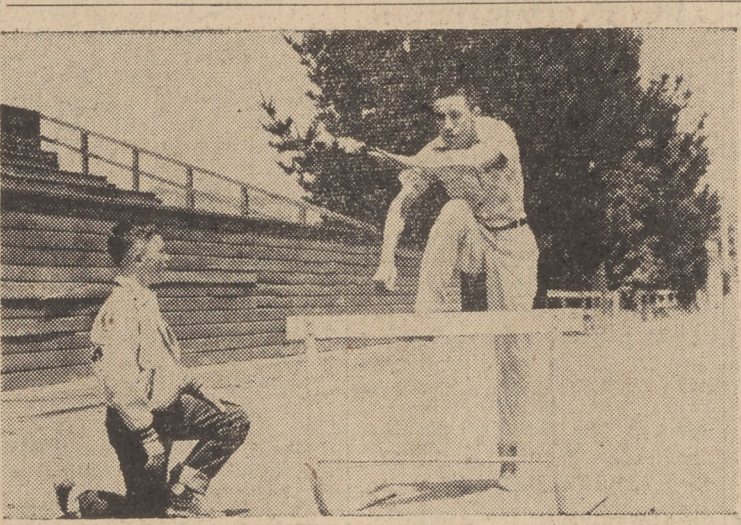

In the fifth inning, Don Hopkins walked, then Bob Staley hit a double, scoring Hopkins.

Later, Marty Dahl got on on a fielder's choice while Staley was thrown out trying to reach third base.

Pleasant Hill first scored in the second inning when Pat O'Conner hit a single, and Mac Thorp hit a double, scoring O'Conner.

In the third inning, Roger Folk got on on an error, and Gary Seaton hit a triple, scoring Folk.

In the sixth inning, Pat O'Conner got on on an error, and Norman Hiebel hit a triple, scoring O'Conner. Bill Kistner then hit a single, scoring Hiebel.

TRACK MEET for grammar school boys and girls of the Lafayette school District will be held tomorrow at Acalanes High School. Stu Fox (left), one of the entrants, gets some pointers from his brother Ernie, who is top Bee hurdler at Acalanes. The lesson is impressive, even though hurdling is not on tomorrow's list of events. The meet will start at 10 a.m. sharp.

Local Lads Qualify--But South Leads State Meet

By ERWIN MATTSOON
LAST WEEK I wrote an article concerning some track athletes who chose the senior ball rather than taking part in the state meet at Chico last Saturday.

On Monday I heard a number of Acalanes boys who took part in the meet say that a number of people thought the article referred to them.

To keep the record straight, it didn't. Three Acalanes boys qualified and went to the state meet with Coach Charles Eaton and did O.K.

In fact, John Cadwell was third in the discus. Larry Pilcher ran under 50 flat for his best time yet but in the fast field wound up sixth.

Butch De Villers was the other qualifier who competed but failed to place in a fast field which saw nine state records go by the board.

It is interesting to note that the discus didn't count in the official score, being listed as an exhibition event.

The southern part of the state doesn't compete in the discus, the reason given that it takes too much space.

The Southland once again dominated the meet, walking away with most of the top honors.

San Francisco placed but one man in the stiff competition. Climate and facilities, plus population, aided the South State cause, but the big factor is that schedules are much fuller and inter-league competition is held in all sports.

The question is not whether the North or the South is right but, it resolves itself into the fact that it places the North at a distinct disadvantage when it comes to competing.

HANDBALL for grammar school players makes its formal debut at Acalanes this Sunday, when a double header is on tap, one game involving the "majors" and one the "minors".

Ceremonies at 1 p.m. will open the new park, which has been under construction the past several weeks.

Ten major clubs will be in full uniform, thanks to the sponsorship of many local merchants, while credit for the park goes to a large number of volunteer workers plus a number of cash donors.

A full story next week will list all of the parties in both groups. Between 200 and 300 are expected to play ball this summer, and chances are there will be a steady trek of fans to the park all summer long to see their players in action.

Early motorists were required to paint their license numbers on their cars. When too many of these motorists started getting "carried away" with their painting, the state started issuing regulation license plates.

Youngsters' Track Meet Is Tomorrow

It's to your marks, get set and BANG! tomorrow at the Acalanes track when Lafayette grade school athletes take part in the First Annual District Track Meet, sponsored by the Lafayette Rotary Club.

The meet is scheduled to get under way at 10 a.m. and to go until all events are run off, with trials and finals taking place in the morning.

A HOST OF athletes and fans are expected to be on hand to participate in and to witness the events.

The 50-yard dash, standing broad jump and three-legged race are on tap for girls 10-12.

For boys age 10-12 it's the 50 yard dash, running broad jump, baseball throw and football punt.

Girls 13-14 have a 50-yard dash, standing broad jump, 75-yard dash and three-legged race, while the boys in the same age group have a 75-yard dash, running broad jump, high jump, 8 pound shot put and football punt.

FINAL SIGNUP will be taken at Acalanes at 9:30 a.m.

No boy or girl may compete in more than three events.

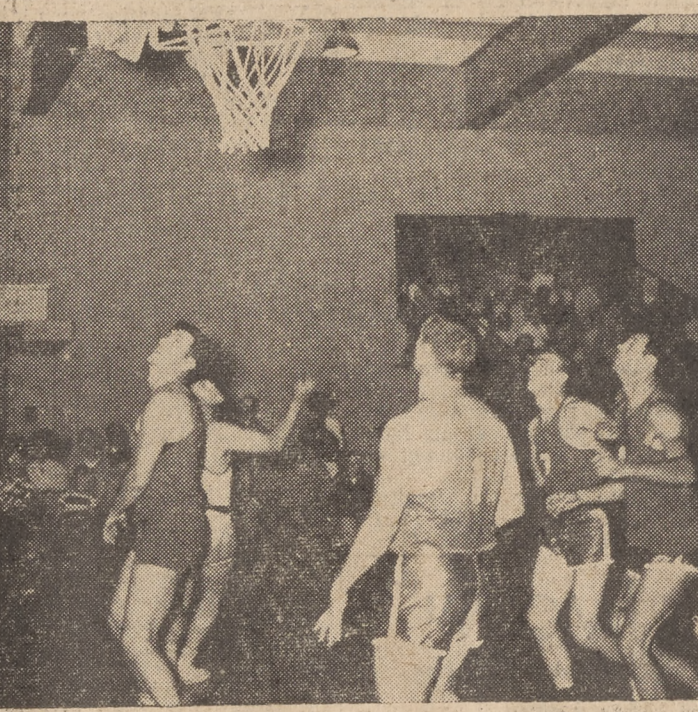

Ken Jensen of Lafayette Rotary, Ted Collins of Stanley School and Charles Eaton, Acalanes track coach, will be in charge.

Local Legion Drops Decision To Pitt, 4-3

The Lafayette Legion suffered its first defeat last Sunday afternoon when it dropped a 4-3 decision to Pittsburg.

Pitt evened it up at 4 all when it scored in the sixth.

The clincher was scored by the visitors in the eighth when Jerry Rounsaville scored after singling, stealing second and coming home on Catcher Max West's single.

Lafayette Nine Edges Albany

The Lafayette Legion nine came through to take an 8-7 win over the Albany Legion in a practice game at Albany May 31.

The twilight game found the local club using four pitchers in nothing the win.

Gordon Napolitano hurled the first three innings. Jim Dinkel went three, giving way to Mac Waddell. Mike Kritscher wound up the hurling.

Jack Carmen and Dave Bjarksky divided the catching duty.

The Lafayette club had a big inning in the third, when it scored five runs on four hits, two walks and a hit batter, giving it a 5-4 lead.

Albany scored a pair in the fourth and one in the fifth, only to have Lafayette score two in the fifth and come through with what proved to be the winning run in the sixth.
